At Five Dolines in advance.

Volume 1.

The Madison Whig Advocate, The

She seldom smil'd, and when she did It was so sad, subd ed and brief.

As though her mourning heart she chid, And strove to smile away its grief. Her silv'ry voice was heard no more, She sang not and her breathing lute. That me'er had known neglect before,

Now lays alone, forgotten, mute. S mournfully the numbers ro e. That those who heard might deem she sang,

A lo n soul's requiem to repose. Yet she complain'd not, silently She wander'd on her weary way, And shrined within her memory The ove that here her to decay.

er brow was fa rer, and her eye Beam'd brighter than in former years, for check too wore a deeper dye, But shi they only nurs'd our fears.

the form more sylph-like daily grew, And on her hand, and o her brow. We now the blue veins coursing through, Lac dark trials on a pla n of snow.

That marble brow and beaming eye, Were but the p lots of the romb, That came to tell on she must die.

Twis sail to see her wear away. So slow, yet surely from our sight or pene-boon falling to decay, When stricken with the canker's bright, And new that all our case and art, Wagid not induce her apprix's stay. Horsany of a broaking heart, im rose trees shade a marble stone, The name on which to friends may tell, That underneath there lieth one. "Who lov'd not wisely, but too well,"

The Devoted Wife.

BY J. G. WEITTIER. the reflection of a sunset cloud upon of the DEVOTED WIFE. e clear waters of a lake. Her lover he clasped her hand within his own. azed on her for a moment with unmined admiration, and the warm eloquent ned shadowed at intervals his manly lady. brahend and melted into beauty on his

CANTON, MISSISSIPPI, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1839.

a light form entered and threw herself massacre of the whites was resolved on, into his arms. The softened light of sun-exacting from her a solemn secresy and set fell upon the pale brow and wasted advising instant escape across the river.

"I have come to save you; I have reach- suspicion in some of the tribe, who had ed you, after a thousand difficulties, and accordingly paid particular attention to year, whenever the moon cases the yet a little longer." I thank God my purpose is nearly accom- the movements of Stacey. One of the but faint fearful debility, "we have not a moment to loose. By an exchange of ped his paddle, and took up his gun. But that bues off his own mose occurs policy wishest to be hold them yet a few years had four young children as a look up his gun. garments you will be enabled to pass out his wife prevented his shooting, by telunnoticed. Haste, or we may be too late. him that if he fired, and they were over-Fear nothing for me, I am a woman, and taken, they would have no mercy with they will not injure me for my efforts in the ludians. He accordingly refrained, behalf a husband dearer than life it and plied his paddle, till the sweat rolled disguised wife, as the office sternly reminded the supposed lady that the time the designs of the tribe, whereby he took the whome many tears—that "live in an onion."

"Oh, speak not of me, my dearest Ed- triumph.

He who marries during this year will thou enjoy in this life!"

in the awful communing of another world. cey refused to betray his informant.— will be a long time coming to years of her eyes buried deep in their dark blue She was a beautiful girl. When I first exertions were accomplished in the sale-She was a beautiful girl. When I first exercions were accomplished in the sale two faugus at his own duri joues, or lor an incessant cough, which dresses the was standing up by the side ty of her husband, and when the bell hawks in case she did not confess. She hunts for a cat with three legs, or beher she was standing up by the side ty of her husband, and when in dell her was standing up by the side ty of her husband, and when in dell her was standing up by the side ty of her husband, and when in dell her was standing up by the side ty of her husband, and when in dell her was standing up by the side ty of her husband, and when in dell her was standing up by the side ty of her husband, and when in dell her was standing up by the side ty of her husband, and when in dell her was standing up by the side ty of her husband, and when in dell her was standing up by the side ty of her husband, and when in dell her was standing up by the side ty of her husband, and when in the prisoner's attempted to evade the truth, by declar-comes a candidate for office, will rival "I am come," said she, "to beg a score ther lover at the marriage after. She was opened, the jailor found wrapping she had a dream the night before honest Dogberry, and be content to of years, that I may enjoy the pleasure the ceremony proceeded, a faint tinge ed in the habilaments of their destined which alarmed her, and that she had per- write himself an ass."

Twelve Daughters of the Year. BY CHARLES DICKENS.

NORTH WIND .-- Twelve daughters my

YEAR .- Yes-twelve daughters; and that ye may not mistake, listen to their And they gave themselves to one and descriptions. The first is cold, stern and the red man who betrayed his tribe? I blush, or baste a turkey this year, she The mother will look red in the face. If she dreams Years passed on, and again I saw these very diminutive in size compared to her wers.—They were seated together sisters, is frequently worse than January. mother looked at her husband, and then she dreams of him four times, or have sisters, is requently worse than January. at her chileren, and stole a glance at the tooth ache, it is ten to one that she brough the half-closed and cr? hson cur- poor and needy and fills the work-house Noaman, who sat smoking his pipe with is a long time getting either of them out and lending a richer tint to the carpet- with shivering objects. Her name is invincible gravity. She wrung her hands of her head. and the exquisite embellishments of February. The third is spiteful in dispoherch and gorgeous apartment.—Time tion, boisterous in temper, and passionate thou name the traitor? 'Tis the third out counting the cost, he will know more and slightly changed them in outward in the extreme. Her gusts of anger and last time.' The agony of the mother waxed more bitter, again she sought the billows of the stormy sea, and swaltace of perfect womanhood, and her low up the frail vessel.—Her name is motionless. A pause of a moment a-knowing how to swim, it is two to one a life divested of all its enjoyments!" was somewhat paler, and a faint line March. The fourth is as capricious and waited her reply, and the next moment that he gets drowned If any one lends the was perceptible on her brow - wayward as an infant child; now all sunhusband's brow, too, was marked ny with smiles-then absorbed in tears, what more deeply than his age now singing as gaily as the nightingale the warrant; anxiety, ambition and -then anxious and overcast .- Her name ed. had grown over, and left their tra- is April. The fifth is a bright and laughopen it; a silver hue was mingled able virgin, whose hours of mirth and the dark of his hair, which had merriment are seldom invaded by a mome thin around his temples almost ment of tears, and whose pleasure is the moment. I am the traitor. I have eabaldness. He was reclining on a cultivation of sweet flowers.—Her name shad, as if he feared that the sedate than her sister whom I have just alluded to. Shadelights in shady groves alluded to. Shadelights in shady groves alluded to. Shadelights in shady groves and the banks of clear rivulets, where the reads or meditates at her leisure.—

"Edward you are ill to-night," said his the reads or meditates at her leisure, and only in the range is June. The seventh is hot, and leaves the last day of grace. Whoever is out to the last day of grace. Whoever is high upon the score and low in the pocket, will think of the Deputy being the reads or meditates at her leisure,—you will. I am ready.' A yell of indignation sounded on all sides. Noaman descended from the little bank where he sail, shrouded his face with his mantle of skins, and submitted to his fate. He fell that the sensitive bosom. It is as the soft her sensitive bosom. It is as the sensitive bosom. It is as the sensitive bosom. It is an an of bears refused its wonted cheer and only in the sensitive bosom. It is an an of bears refused its wonted cheer shear shared the kindness of these Christian be dunned. Whoever hires money out turn over a new leaf this year, but the shy how they call speak that mellowness which is also to be found in the fruits that hang over her will be shy how they call speak that mellowness which is also to new leaf will turn out a blank. Many and it is corroborated by the undentable to receive the evidence of his broken in the fruits that hang over her

No subscription received for a less time than Something of returning tee to ed eyes, toothless and tottering in her and silver plate. Some time after a con-man, in grateful friendship, gave the rocks and quicksands which bound in angel. The door of the dungeon opened, and wife of Stacey a secret warning that a the ocean of existence."

The daily visits of old Noaman, and ful one—to every old maid wh gets mar-"Edward-my dear Edward," she said, his more ordinary gravity, had excited ried. young Indians, who had kept on the Misfortune had softened the proud watch seeing the whole family about to cash, will lose their credit.

ward," said the devoted woman. "I can | When they got ashore, the Indians set every thing for your sake .- fire to Stacey's house, and and dragged Haste, Edward, haste, and all will be himself, his wife and children, to their who wears mustaches will have somewell"—and she aided with a trembling village. Here the principle old men. thing to sneeze at. hand to disguise the proud form of her husband in temale garb.

"Farewell, my love, my preserver"— among them stated that some of the tribe whispered the husband in the ear of his whispered the husband in t the rest. Sta ey was first interrogated by one of the old men, who spoke EngThey did meet again—that wife and by one of the old men, who spoke Enggrieve much at the fall of stocks. He husband-but only as the dead may meet lish, and interpreted to the others. Sta- who grows old without growing wise, with a palsy. Her teeth were gone-Affection had borne up he exhausted His wife was then questioned, while at discretion. He who wants to borrow sockets—her cheek hollow and fleshless. spirit, until the last great purpose of her the same moment two Indians stood money will know the value of it. He and she could hardly prefer her request rimson crossed her beautiful cheek, victim, the pale but still beautiful corpse suaded her husband to fiv. The Great There will be more books published ed over the graves of my husband, my speak the truth or thy children shall find payers.

cute their bloody orders. their mother not to let them be murder-ten of the salt, warmed myself at the fire, Whoever runs in debt this year will

G. E. W. NELSON & Co.

TERMS.—Fire Dollars in advance, or Six joys, and sorrows is has been when on will be discontinued until all arresrages the paid, except at the option of the publishers, are paid, except at the option of the publishers, are paid, except at the option of the publishers, we shall not discontinue will please give some thereof in writing.

No subscription received for a less time than No subscription received for a less time than Something of returning two to the publishers and silver place. Something of returning two to the course of many a many as an as a shearing of this is not because the course of many a many as an as a shearing of this is not because the course of many a many as an as a shearing of this is not because the course of many a many as an as a shearing of this is not because the course of many a many as an as a shearing of this is not because the course of many a many as an as a shearing of this is not because the course of many as an as a shearing of this is not because the course of many as an as a shearing of this is not because the course of many as an as a shearing of the sentence to be engraved on his gold the sentence to be the very course of many as an as a shearing of the publishers.

Something of returning two course of many as an as shearing of the publishers and silver plate. Some time after a constitution of the publishers and counters were very indignent at what that have gone before it. The whith that have gone before it. The whith that have gone before it. The whole that the that have gone before it. The whole the course of many as and cold at heart; without a virtue to courtiers were very indignent at what night will grow dark.

Predictions for the years 10. The year 1840 will be a try event honors?"

heart of manhood, and as the husband take their boat, ran to the little Indian It is probable that if theres no busipressed his pale wife to his bosom, a tear village, about a mile off, and gave the ness doing, people will complan of hard trembled on his everlash of have not alarm. Fire Indiana alleged and the ness doing, people will complan of hard the nest appointed the ness doing, people will complan of hard the nest appointed the ness doing, people will complan of hard the nest appointed the nest app deserved this kindness," he murmured to the river side where their cones to the river side where their cones and the next applicant for lengthed on his eye-lash. "I have not alarm. Five Indians collected, ran down times, but it is certain the hose who years, was a feeble old man, who was deserved this kindness," he murmured to the river side, where their canoes in the cheaked tones of convulsion as were moved in a litter.—When he had one to the river side, where their canoes hang themselves will escapi starving to carried in a litter.—When he had one in the choaked tones of convulsive agny.

Were moored, jumped in and paddled after Stacey, who had by this time got *Edward," said his wife, in an earnest some distance out in the stream. Thou "Edward," said his wife, in an earnest, some distance out in the stream. They end of the year than he was at the be-

Many a man will get rich this year- old man. in a dream.

"you look sadiy ill. You cannot breathe within a hundred wards of the shore, true, because it has been said every year to hear them a little longer?" and carried back with shouts of yelling true, because it has been said every year to hear them a little longer!

regularly, ever since we have had a remembrance.

allotted for her visit had expired. "Fare- the alarm, and had well night escaped. run a great risk—that is, if he does it in "The pleasure of living," said the old well, we shall meet again, responded He proposed to examine the prisoner as a hurry. He who steals a match will man; and the angel granted him a few his wife—and the husband passed out unsuspected, and escaped the enemies of men assented to this, and Noamen among a scrape.

The who steads a match will man; and the make tattlers gossip and get himself into wears more.

The third

Spirit never deigns to talk in dreams to this year than will find purchasers; children, my grand-children, and the rest a pale face, said the old Indian: woman! more rhymes written than will find of my dear relatives, spring up and thou hast two tongues and two faces: readers; and more bills made than will flourish before I die. I am bereft of all surely die.' The little boy and girl Whoever is in love this year will were then brought close to her, and two think his mistress an angel. Whoever for me; I beseech thee, Oh! beneficent savages stood over them, ready to exe- gets married, will find out whether it be pains.

There will be a great noise about the 'Stop!' cried Noaman. All eyes were country-whenever it thunders; and a all dead."

"Alas, and I have lost my good name, genius otherwise. The explanation is "Six-I have now amond at that no and am miserably poor. Yet I wish to be sought for in the peculiar nature tremby of degrada as which have an

The angel bestowed upon him the pri-Those who have debts to py, and no vilege of living an hundred years, and he went on his way rejoicing and trems guished alike for his accurate knowledge promotes and home were as to give in big drops down his forehead. All be one of uncommon interest and im the echoes of the mountains, and all the "But, Margaret," said the husband. would not do-they were overtaken portance. This cannot fail of being harmonies of the universe, and wishest wound of thy trumpet." If dandies wear their beards there "Thou art fond of the delicacies

"Alas! my feeble health will not permit of such indulgencies. I have lived quaintances with a particular hand of digenous and have lived of seeing the cypress trees I have plantthat were near and dear to me; I stand alone in the world, with no one to speak angel to grant my request!"

"Though I grant thee lengthened days If any young lady should happen to I cannot remove thy infirmities and sufferings. They will increase upon thee," answered the angel

"I care not, since I shall know they cannot kill me before my time." "Take thy wish," said the angel, smiling; "go and be happy." "Strange!" cried a learned man, who had come to petition for a few years, to complete an explanation of the apocaheads of the children, who besought obliged to go home in the rain for his becomes thee, ignorant mortal, to adore mercifully decreed at the same time that your trade honorable and useful to socio- to take a passage of the turned upon him. 'White woman thou hast kept thy word with me to the last horses—unless the roads are macadam- sence of all its sources of enjoyment.— Go! take thy wish, and finish thy commentary on the apocalypse."

Something of returning test to ed eyes, toothless and tottering in her softened for an instant the cold se gait, dressed in furs which do not, how-spiracy was entered into for the purpose of the husband's features, but it pand ver, keep her warm, and slipping at every falled in the same and silver plate. Some time difference in the purpose of the husband's features, but it pand ver, keep her warm, and slipping at every falled in the same and silver plate. Some time difference in the purpose of destroying the prince; as he was at the time indisposed, his surgeon was at the time indisposed, his surgeon was at the time indisposed, his surgeon was at the time indisposed, his world by the Supreme Governor of the world by the Supreme Governor of t Account may will be a produced out of the particular and flight-order out the number of the twain were continued until ordered out, and charged at the ratio of Fee Decision of the continued out of t dim grate of his dungeon, with a feeling of unutterable horror. He felt that it consisted of Stacey, his wife, and two was the last sun that would set to him. It would cast its next level and suns-t level and s "Alas!" cried the old man, "they are prising difficulty; while on the other and evaluate below a some grown and hand, we might be tompered to think the tion. When requested to give more we-"Thou art in possession of wealth and very reverse, from its being excelled in count of bounds, gas and from the S. by persons who never displayed poetrcal Louis Bulleton,) he revied of his profession and his strict integrally. The sky which heat-over us. I have all How could she to it?-R and here the more by some extraordinary com-"I am blind these ten years," said the miliar with a distinguished executant waster. But I will proceed with my down nown, Mr. A. T. [Arthur Tappan !] story. Two years also I wormer "Thou art delighted with the music of who sometimes press as at meetings in to me will -a to was a time to de-The present session of Congress will the birds, and murmuring of the waters, for a credit of some $500 worthof goods accretacing the doubt of my with the lower part of the house in which she is bud immediately, he the purpose of the of ved to be fitted far their exception, and thing the affairs of the discussion and > There was an neter at Delmonico's a quost intense accurity by regard to my few mornings after, and he overhead a family. The letters which I remissed relation of the above circumstances in a from my will great had and and another with whom he was acquainted.

"How is she now?" said the actor. "In despair."

"Cannot obtain money ?" "Nor the credit!"

rour representation, I offer a proposition, my dismay." I harrow I boom, into my If you will each lead her $250, I will my houses will unwitted, and provelend her twice that sum." They had no money which was not friend Willoughly, and our how-on then invested. "Well, then, here is a check for $1000 obsert of public charges.

go and get the money, carry it to her. "William him had recovered hims and take her note payable to yourself or as a rich picular from Malanca, and its bearer for one year. Bring the note to be was somerning at the north, the th me, and mind that you say nothing of the purpose of regarding he had he source whomes the same came."

"His directions were obeyed .- When tection, I first in parasit, of the discthe note fell due it was paid, with inter- or of use pouns, with my liver house, est; and the widow is now doing a fair with rowneys. As Management Known business on her own account. The netter I learned that William had a ..... was Enwis Fourst,-N. Y. Pesen. there in company with a lady, whom be mechanic. We never knew a punctual tradition .-- Mer waring for waring mechanic, of ordinary capacities, and a nad hearing method of the common freedom from providential min was invested against a firm and fortunes, who was so poor as not to be followed him. able to supply himself and family with "Mad with rage and deappearants", the necessaries and comforts of life; but pursted. At Mahde I had all traces of "Strange," cried he, corling his lip in we have known many to suffer, as a con- the villery and his way to be sequence of their broken promises and amounted to New Orients; and on me rable of human beings should still covet their inattention to business, and then king inquires of the different complain of hard times, the grinding washed by the Chatan of any "Silence, fool," replied the angel, in power of the aristocracy, the hardehance that a wages and the a voice of ineffable contempt; "it rather of mechanics, See, Are you a joiner, a I had gave, had good to the goodness of Providence, which hath a shoomaker, a blacksmith, a tailer, a butted for the page, or ordained that men should live to be old, printer or any thing else, which makes being was well as a second it is promised, puctual in collecting your way thing of my way, or the willian pay for it, and punctual in paying your Wallangiay, I because decouraged and "Never begin a thing until you have bower, or in the harvests, the gathering of which she loves to superintend.—Her leftings which he scorns or the feelings which he scorns of the personal and gloomy brow—the involuntary sigh of sorrows—the involuntary s

Throughout the whole cose of the live till I am an hundred, and enjoy life of the song, its construction and have The Christian and the Tragelina. | Here I was here to thus, In my worth B. was an active merchant, disting when I first count in the world, an

I had appropriated, and I begin in hel the regard to one well's portion were about to be exceptioned, I received a liceur flour "Well: relying on the correctness of and the house of me wall? however sixtime to find my will alread with un-

"Placing my child unless penger to Puncryantry.-Punctuality is the life of yours a meterious himsing and sain. business in every department of honest and had gone to Mahale, busing to wellindustry, but is especiall important to a (my will) behind a command to